Monthly Highlights

HIGHLIGHTS

- Genemod, a Seattle-based startup, closed a seed round of $1.7M. Genemod’s platform allows students and faculty to collaborate in real-time, streamlining reporting with project management tools and a multi-tiered freezer tool for visualizing common laboratory freezers. Genemod is a participant in the LSW Institute WA Innovation Network (WIN) Mentoring Program. (Tech Crunch)
- Seattle-based HDT Bio closed a seed round which will support development of a COVID-19 vaccine candidate, HDT-301. Initial early results from mice and non-human primates show promise for the replicating RNA vaccine. In September, HDT Bio also announced receipt of an $8.2M contract from the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Disease at the NIH. (HDT Bio News)
- 98point6, an on-demand digital primary care service that delivers personalized consultation, diagnosis and treatment to patients across the country, today announced a $118 million Series E fundraising round to further support its growth and success. The text-based primary care platform now has more than 240 commercial partnerships. (98point6)
